

GINS FROM THE BRONZE COLLECTION

Gin Lane 1751 'Old Tom'

Old Tom gin is lighter and less intense than a London Dry and was very common in the Victorian times. A sweeter style gin, we've increased the star anise botanical and added a touch of refined sugar to create a full-bodied, perfectly balanced gin. Traditionally, Old Tom gin should never be barrel aged nor have any color to the liquid. Style: A smooth, full-flavored gin with a softer and slightly sweet profile. Taste: Silky and smooth with a sweet, yet dry taste profile. Made with 100% refined sugarcane.

Xoriguer 'Mahon'

Appearance: Crystal clear with a distinctive body differentiated by the essential oils of juniper berries. Fragrance: Aromatic with tones of juniper, green wood and herbs. Flavour: An herbaceous palate, generous in juniper and smooth citric undertones round out its character. After taste: Long and light with soft memory of black pepper.

Brokers London

Brokers Gin distilled at the higher 47% ABV. The raw ingredients in this gin are triple-distilled, the pure grain spirit is made from English wheat, and ten natural botanicals (herbs, spices and fruit) sourced from around the world. The botanicals are steeped for 24 hours in the pure grain spirit, which is then distilled for a fourth time. Broker's Gin is made in a 200 year old Gin Distillery outside London, using traditional copper pot-stills.

Gordons Sloe

We take the finest wild sloe berries and steep them gently, before adding Gordon's gin. The result is a wonderful tippie that marries the dryness of Gordon's with cassis sweetness perfect in cocktails, as an alternative G&T or simply on its own. A classic blend, this takes the dryness of Gordon's with cassis sweetness in a clear bottle that shows off the rich, dark berry colour and great taste.

IOW Mermaid

Portobello Road

This gin was released by the award-winning Notting Hill bar, Portobello Star, home of the Ginsitute. This is a place where one can learn an awful lot about gin, so you would expect Portobello Road No. 171 to be rather good, and indeed it is. It's an old-style London Dry Gin, containing traditional botanicals and spices, that harks back to the gins of yesteryear.

Dancing Cows Lymington

A gin from Lymington, made with juniper, coriander, angelica (root and seeds), orris root, bitter orange peel, cardamom, fresh lemon zest and almond. The finished gin is then infused with East Kent Golding hops! Great in a G&T with a lime garnish and pink peppercorns.
